dead. All who can should attend this service and pray for the souls of those for whom it is offered. Requiescant in pace.

F. T. Aspinwall has resigned the position of assistant superintendent of the territorial prison at Yuma.

E. F. Myers, of the firm of Lowenthal & Myers, wholesale liquor dealers of Albuquerque, was in the city yesterday.

P. C. Allen, master of transportation of this division of the Santa Fe Pacific railroad spent several days here this week.

J. W. Treat has had the front of his business building on Front street, occupied by B. Hoek and the Gem restaurant, painted this week.

E. C. Van Nest and family of Los Angeles have decided to locate in Flagstaff. Mr. Van Nest is a carpenter and will build a residence here.

The family of I. T. Hibbard, superintendent of the Santa Fe Pacific, are guests of the Bank hotel and are enjoying the cool weather of Flagstaff.

Mr. Poyne, member of the stationery firm of Lamb & Poyne, is up from Phoenix for a few days on a visit to Mrs. Poyne, who is spending the summer months in this salubrious climate.

Mrs. Ed. Gale with her little son Johnnie, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hawks, this week. Mrs. Gale reports Winslow as unusually mild both in wind and sun this summer, but the ladies as usual have gone to other cooler points to while away the tedium of the next three months.

Sheriff Cameron spent a couple of days in Prescott this week. While there he visited Fort Whipple and the Flagstaff boys who enlisted in Col. McCord's regiment. He found the boys enjoying good health, and all were anxious to get away from the monotony of barrack life and get to the front.

W. N. Hill and family are living in the D. R. Prime residence. Mr. Hill is slowly improving, and would be pleased to have his old time friends call on him.

W. J. Mulvenon has earned the lasting gratitude of the boys at Whipple by giving them ice free. He has placed a large whiskey barrel just outside of the ice factory, which he keeps filled with ice water all the time for their special use, while the boys carry large cakes of it daily to Whipple.—Journal-Miner.

Dr. Cottrell and son Leonard, are among the late arrivals of Phoenix pleasure seekers. The doctor is a leading spirit both professionally and socially in Phoenix and enjoys an extensive practice. He and Leonard will make a trip out in the mountains in quest of game for a month in company with other sporting celebrities which will doubtless furnish food—for many after dinner stories later.

Mr. F. H. Ward and charming wife, arrived in Flagstaff Wednesday morning to rusticate among the pines in company with several Phoenix pleasure seekers for a month or so. Mr. Ward is a member of the firm of Wilson & Ward, shoe dealers of Phoenix, who enjoys a mammoth patronage all over Arizona. Mrs. Ward has had a serious complication of neuralgia, toothache and lockjaw while here, but is somewhat improved, and it is hoped that very soon all discomfort will have passed away.

LATER—Mr. Ward was taken with a hemorrhage on Thursday night which was not entirely overcome by Friday morning, and feeling satisfied the altitude was too high, left, accompanied by his wife, for Prescott.
